

THE SIMPLE PLEASURE ANNOUNCES FALL TOUR OF NORTHEAST US

Brooklyn-by-Philadelphia band The Simple Pleasure (Amanda Palmer and The Grand Theft Orchestra, Cellular Chaos) are heading out on a tour of the northeast US to promote the upcoming release of their new record The Glamour of it All.

(Listen to their new single MILFSHAKE here in anticipation of their independent October 14th release)

Chad Raines' synthpunk behemoth The Simple Pleasure has had many iterations over the years, utilizing the talents of the versatile artists in his sphere to blast forth his subversive tongue-in-cheek pop. Already an acrobatic frontman on guitar and vocals leading his army of beats and synths, most recently he has joined forces with artist Admiral Grey (Cellular Chaos, Ecstatics) on bass and supporting vocals to create a tight live power duo whose ecstatic and sweaty live performances aggressively finesse the audience with a sound and energy that lies where the lines of Prince and The Cramps intersect.

(Watch the music video for their song Young Professionals here)

Photo Credit: Lina Xinos

THE SIMPLE PLEASURE / FALL 2016 TOUR DATES

- 10/12 - @ The Meat Locker, Montclair, NJ
- 10/14 - @ Citizen's Television, New Haven, CT
- 10/15 - @ Charlie-O's World Famous, Montpelier, VT
- 10/19 - @ Radio Bean, Burlington, VT
- 10/20 - @ The Glove, Brooklyn, NY
- 10/21 - @ 33 Golden Street, New London, CT
- 10/22 - @ WFVR, VT
- 10/26 - @ The Half Moon, Hudson, NY
- 10/27 - @ Tommy's Place, Providence, RI
- 10/28 - @ Union Docs, Brooklyn, NY
- 10/29 - @ Space 1026, Philadelphia, PA

Instagram

Facebook

Bandcamp

Booking, guest list, interviews, and promo : radchaines@gmail.com